To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Madras.

Sir,

The village of Hejmadi is at present included within the jurisdiction of the Bappanad Panchayat Court - please see notification, dated 19th April 1920, in G.O.No.1019 Home (Judicial) dated 19th April 1920. The villagers of Hejmadi request that the village may be excluded from the jurisdiction of that court and placed under the Village Munsiff as before on the following grounds:-

(1) That there is a big river, between Hejmadi and Bappanad villages which causes extra cost and trouble to the litigant public, especially to women and members of the ---- Depressed Classes and which it is dangerous to ford during the rainy season.

That as parties are not ferried over in boats in time, exparte decrees are often passed against them and as the ---- village of Bappanad falls within the jurisdiction of the ---- District Munsiff, Karkal, which is a long way off, it is ---- practically beyond the powers of poor clients to file appeals there.

2. The Tahsildar reports that the difficulties ----- experienced by the villagers are real. - A separate Panchayat Court for the village cannot be constituted for this as ----- required by G.O.No.1148 Home (Judicial) dated 4th May 1920 on account of the small number of suits filed and for want of a building in the village rent free, nor can it be conveniently added to any other Panchayat Court of the Taluk. It has --- therefore to depend on the Village Munsiff's Court, which the villagers desire. The abolition of the existing Bappanad -- Panchayat Court and the formation of a new one may therefore be ordered to take effect from 1st February 1926.

(D)

3. Draft notifications under clauses 1 & 7 of ------ Section 9 of the Village Courts Act are submitted.

Your obedient servant,

For Collector.
